

boyce has reduced all business greatly. The message follows that of the Mexican episcopate yesterday urging the government to suspend the new religious laws until changes can be made in the constitution so that it will meet the Catholic point of view.

President Calles late tonight replied to the letter of the episcopate, telling the bishops that he cannot amend the constitution. He said the episcopate could take its place in congress or the federal courts.

Although the police make light of the alleged Catholic plot against the government, arrests of those believed implicated in it continue. Of more than 100 arrested here in connection with the plot, all but eight of those who have appeared before the court have been liberated.

The attorney general continued examining those accused today. The examination revealed that a Mrs. Perches had established a string of hotels through several Mexican states by which information of a prospective revolution came and went. Among the witnesses were Señor Ocas and Joseph Robillo, who acted as post carriers. It is said that the attorney general got the names of many others who acted in the same capacity.

Señor Pardo de León, said to be the leader in the women's activities in the plot, is being held. Several other prominent society women are said to be involved.

Gen. Carlos Ariza, famous as one of the most active officers of Emiliano Zapata when the latter was ravaging the state of Morelos and neighboring territory, was arrested and imprisoned, and the government is hunting for other military men supposed to be mixed up in the plot.

Torresillo Kills Friend.

Mexico City, Aug. 19.—Sanchez Mejia, Mexico's most noted bull fighter, this morning for the third time assassinated a friend while drunk. Afternoon papers call him a killer of men instead of a killer of bulls. Early this year Mejia killed a companion under almost identical circumstances in Quaujatlan. He was freed on the plea that he shot in self-defense.

Since the expulsion of Mons. Cresspi the Vatican has not been getting direct news from Mexico.

RULES BOOZE AD DOES NOT BAR PAPER FROM U. S.

New York, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Action of customs authorities in holding up a shipment of the English magazine, "Key to London," because of a liquor advertisement, was held unwarranted today by Assistant United States Attorney Harlan.

Mr. Harlan advised Acting Solicitor Edward Barnes, at the custom house, that section 17 of the national prohibition act, which prohibits the distribution of publications containing advertisements of liquor, wine, and other beverages brewed from sale by that act, refers only to advertisements of liquor either to be manufactured, placed on sale, or kept for sale in this country.

Mr. Barnes issued instructions to remove all customs restrictions on the magazine and to release it on payment of the regular duties.

ARCHAIC BRIDGE RULES CALLED A PUBLIC ABUSE

Facts Are Told in Fight to Relieve Loop Traffic.

The holding of Chicago river bridges by the city to make way for boats, barges, tugs and scows is nothing more nor less than a public subsidy to a private business.

That, in brief, is the view of W. J. Lynch, harbor master, as stated yesterday in a letter to Commissioner of Public Works A. A. Sprague. The letter is a part of the data being prepared for the government with a view of having the hours lengthened when bridges must remain closed.

The information, which is to be laid before Col. Edward Shults, army engineer in charge here, will show that the present closed hours are not only too short, but are ill-adjusted to the peak traffic periods. It will also stress the enormous public losses caused by the open spans in order to benefit comparatively few shippers.

An Injustice to the Public. Freedom of navigable waters, according to Mr. Lynch, may be an inalienable right as applied to the open waters, but for a stream in the heart of a city like Chicago its extreme observance is no longer an aid, but a grave injustice to the vast majority of citizens.

"Up to a few years ago," his letter states, "the wide and diversified use of the Chicago river for commercial purposes bespoke a general public benefit. An examination of the present traffic on the river brings one to the conclusion that the business is of a private nature, notwithstanding that there are still some public benefits derived, the outstanding one being, perhaps, a more favorable rail rate."

Stating this more concretely, it can be said that expenditures by the city in bridge operation, together with losses to street traffic on account of bridge openings, are in fact a public subsidy to a private business.

Fixed Bridges Inevitable. "Personally, I am strongly of the opinion that a fixed bridge policy is inevitable. Viewed in this light, the 'bridge closed' hours are in a transit state leading to such a policy."

"That the closed hours are a serious obstruction to navigation is admitted. On the other hand, navigation has lessened materially, especially this year, in the moving of steamship lines to the Municipal pier. A reasonable conclusion, therefore, would be that the 'bridge closed' hours should be extended."

In reaching this conclusion, I do not wish to appear arbitrary, nor to have solved the question with finality. The harbor survey being conducted by the Commercial club, without a doubt will consider in detail the subject of bridge operation and determine a policy consistent with the whole harbor plan.

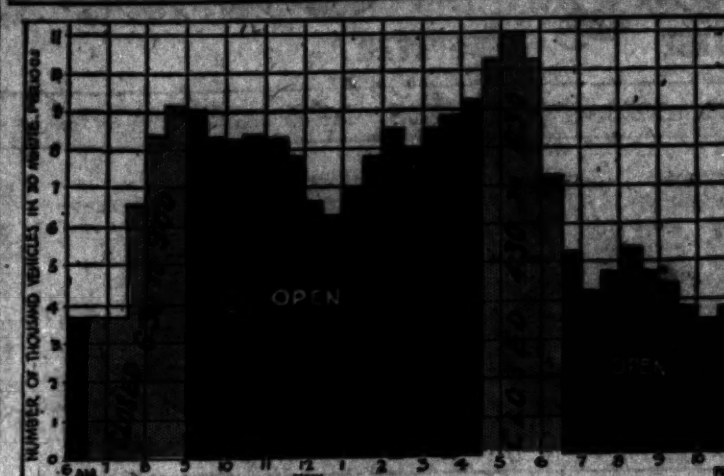

"Until their report is prepared, therefore, I would recommend as a temporary policy the adoption of the longer 'bridge closed' hours."

Ordinance Out of Date. Under the city ordinance now in effect, the twenty bridges in the downtown district are closed from 6:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m. Except for the addition of 1/2 hour to the morning period in 1925 and 1/4 hour in 1924, these periods have not been changed since 1890.

These periods, especially that in the morning, no longer correspond to the rush hour use of the bridges, it is pointed out. People come to work from 6 to 8 a. m. in 1925, whereas they report at 8 to 9 a. m.

This is graphically shown by an illustration prepared for Col. Shults by Mr. W. Ottobrun, assistant harbor master, from statistics compiled by Miller McClintock, director of the Association

New Bridge Closing Hours Proposed

The chart shows the number of vehicles that cross bridges during the various hours of the day. It also demonstrates that the bridges are opened at hours when the traffic is heaviest. It is proposed to change the closing hours from 6:30 to 9:30 a. m. and from 4:30 to 6:30 p. m. to 1:30 to 4:30 p. m.

JUDGE HOLDOM SEIZES DIVORCE CASE RECORDS

Wherein E. H. McConkey Accuses Wife.

Written confession by Mrs. Elizabeth W. McConkey, 323 Argyle street, giving details of her love affair with another man, said to be a well known interior decorator, was submitted yesterday by Edwin H. McConkey, president of the National Republic Life Insurance company, as his basis for a suit for divorce.

Immediately after the hearing Judge Holdom seized the files in the case and refused to allow any one to examine them.

Chicago His Own Book. By hearing the case only a few hours after it was filed, Judge Holdom changed a rule he made public at the beginning of the vacation period when he refused the pleas of many lawyers asking that he listen to divorce cases. He announced at that time that no divorce suit, even one that had been pending for months, could be considered as an emergency case and that he would hear none.

McConkey, who is said to be a millionaire, was one of the organizers of the Chicago National Life company. He has been in the insurance business in Chicago for many years and is an official of other insurance companies.

Freely Uses Electrons. McConkey's bill, said to be unusual because of its length, read: "Your orator charges that the defendant committed adultery, etc., and that said acts of adultery occurred, etc."

Mrs. McConkey's confession told how she met the other man when he was employed to redecorate their home. She fell in love with him and accompanied him, once in an automobile in Highland Park, she confessed. In consideration of this confession, she received a large alimony settlement, it was learned.

Judge Holdom withheld a decision, saying, "Perhaps there will be no decree of divorce entered in this case."

JURY GETS CASE OF MAN HELD AS DAUGHTER KILLER

Wife Stands By Him; Weeps in Court.

(Chicago Tribune From Service.)

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Wallace C. Gaines was convicted of the first degree murder of his daughter, Sylvia, by a jury tonight.

The jury recommended that Gaines be hanged. Gaines' daughter, 23 year old Smith college graduate, was found choked and beaten to death on the north shore of Green lake the morning of June 17.

By WALLACE C. GAINES. testimony of witnesses it was indicated that she was killed about 9 o'clock the night before.

Charged Unnatural Relations.

The state in prosecuting Gaines introduced evidence indicating that he had an unnatural affection for his daughter, whom he had not seen for sixteen years until last September. It was testified that she had threatened to leave him and that in a jealous anger over this proposed leaving and a fear that she would expose their relations he killed her.

Every member of the jury that convicted Gaines was the father or mother of a daughter of about the dead girl's age. "The cruelest blow ever given a woman," was given the prisoner's wife when the defense in its summing up asserted that "Gaines believed Mrs. Gaines to have been the slayer."

Mrs. Gaines, who had stuck by her husband through his ordeal, wilted in her chair when the accusation was made. She wept bitterly, Gaines, "the man of ice" did not move a muscle.

Pal Gave Evidence.

The state's case hinged on testimony of Louise Stern, once a pal of Gaines. Stern testified a few minutes after the murder Gaines staggered into his home, slumped into a chair, demanded a drink, and said:

"You know what I've always said, that if they didn't stop nagging me I'd kill them. Well, that's just what happened."

Another link was positive identification of Gaines' old rooming partner, near the scene of the crime about the time it was committed. Gaines steadily maintained he knew nothing of the crime. On the stand, however, he failed to account for his time while the murder was being committed. The drama started a year ago, when Sylvia Gaines, fresh from Smith college, came west to visit the father she had not seen for sixteen years. Gaines admitted he did not get along well with Mrs. Gaines.

The girl, with her smart eastern clothes, seemed like a stranger to her father, and the state says he fell head over heels in love with her, and that the murder was the result of thwarted, unnatural affection. Gaines maintained he felt for her only the natural affection of a father for a daughter.

On June 17 workmen found the battered body of Sylvia thrust into the bushes beside a city lake. Newspapers forced the arrest of Gaines who, they charged, was being sheltered by his brother, a county commissioner.

COOLIDGE FEELS FOREIGN POLICY IS WORKING

Satisfied with Progress Kellogg Is Making

BY ARTHUR S. HENRY (Chicago Tribune From Service.)

Paul Smiths, N. Y., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—President Coolidge today declared that his foreign policy was working.

The President indicated that with the course being pursued in connection with the principal international questions now pending.

Further consideration of the question pertaining to the withdrawal of French troops from the Rhine has confirmed the President's decision to ignore the matter completely.

The act never has been received by the Senate, and therefore no reply for Mr. Coolidge has been given. Mr. Coolidge has rejected the suggestion that he alter to the Senate the decision to voice aspirations upon American soil.

No Formal Plea Forthwith. Whether the Clemenceau inspired by the French government not known, but it now is as the administration that, in the French government is to voice formally Clemenceau for a reopening of the debate negotiations and cancel the entire debt.

French credit is now suffering from the debt repudiation of the French people and states are inexorably compelling acceptance of the settlement to save the franc from collapse. The pressure of business interests upon the government to settle to further losses from international credit is precisely the pressure of the British cabinet which caused the British cabinet to abandon its cancellation negotiations and agree to a settlement to America.

Sees Vindication of Policy. In these developments the President's policy of maintaining the war debts on the basis of the nation's credit is being maintained.

The administration is opposing the future of our relations with Mexico. It is believed that the President's policy will run its course without having caused for protest rights are being violated.

The President has been giving the Calles government for complaint of the attitude of the United States in the current. He refused to lift the ban on the export of arms to Mexico although he had been point of view in the general.

Supporters in this country Mexican clerical brought a bear on the President to his barge. The Mexican government with Mr. Coolidge to retain Coolidge kept the lid on, to faction of the Calles government disposition in administration is to attribute to his conduct the fact that the Mexican clerical decrees were carried Mexican government with American rights.

If the theory of the effect President's action on the correct it is apparent that the nation possesses a weapon to be used to force recognition of rights in Mexico.

J. S. PROSPERITY UPHELD BY G. O. P., PHIPPS DECLARES

Senator Sounds Keynote of Congress Campaign.

Senator Lawrence G. Phipps (Rep., Ohio), chairman of the Republican national campaign committee, yesterday fired the opening shot of the full campaign to maintain a G. O. P. majority in both houses of Congress.

Continuance of an unprecedented national prosperity produced by the present Republican majority under the leadership of President Coolidge is the prime issue of the campaign, he declared.

Laboring men are not urging that the party which brought all this prosperity be turned out of control, he said. Neither are the farmers recommending a change in the complexion of Congress, he asserted.

Senator Phipps made the statement at the La Salle hotel headquarters, from which the G. O. P. campaign in the west will be directed.

Cites Limitation of Limitations.

Mr. Phipps cited the limitation of arms and munitions, which he said saved the people five billions in five years. He stressed the "abundance of property," adding:

"Certainly no Democratic leader would claim that it is not here. If he did, every man and woman who is employed at good wages, as contrasted with five millions of wage earners out of work in 1921, would laugh at him."

Citing industrial and commercial gains as well as foreign trade growth, the statement continued:

"The value of the farm crop is 30 per cent higher than in 1921. Likewise the value of manufactured and mineral products is 35 per cent higher. Our national wealth has jumped until it is greater than that of Great Britain, France, Germany, and Italy combined. Our standard of living and our wages are the highest in the world."

For instance, the average wage per week in the building trades in this country is $13.34. In Germany it is $7.14. Carpenters here receive $55.64 per week. In England they receive $24.46. And, except for seasonal and voluntary causes, all are at work in the United States.

Contrasts Farm Conditions.

Declaring the war profits of farmers abnormal, asserting the wheat growers were limited on price, but the cotton grower was not, the statement added:

"After the war there was a slump. There was no legislation to protect them. They had overextended. They had to curtail. Wheat was selling at $1.14 in 1921. But today it is $1.21. That 300 pounds was selling at $1.44. Today it is $1.60. Wool was 16 cents a pound. Today it is 28 cents."

Meanwhile, the Republican congress has helped our farmers by an extension of five hundred millions in rural credits, by permitting cooperative marketing.

Says G. O. P. Is Secure.

"The country will not vote against the party that has brought about increased prices, wages and activity in business. I have no doubt about that. What are those causes?"

"First, a protective tariff sufficiently high to cover the difference between the cost of living here and abroad, 13 per cent lower than the Payne-Aldrich rates; 20 per cent below the Dingley rates; and with 10 per cent of all importations on the free list."

"Second, a restrictive immigration law which prevents unfair competition with our labor."

"Third, a policy of economy which has reduced expenditure per annum from $1,141,000,000 in 1921 to approximately $1,000,000,000 in 1925; brought down the national debt five billions of dollars; and with 10 per cent of all importations on the free list."

"Fourth, a reduction in taxes for all the people of $1,450,000,000 every year below the figures of 1921."

"The issue of the campaign is summed up in the fact that the American market today consumes 90 per cent of our production."

IT'S PROSPERITY FOR SELECT FEW, ASSERTS HEFLIN

Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Republican prosperity is "confined to a favored few," but the cotton producers and grain growers are not prosperous and the south "is now suffering greatly on account of the low price of cotton," declared Senator Hefflin (Dem., Ala.), member of the agricultural committee of the senate, today.

The Republican prosperity about which we now hear so much, is limited, he said. "The big tariff fattened manufacturers of the east, the stock gamblers, cotton growers, and grain growers are fairly reeling in Republican prosperity, but the cotton producers and grain growers are not. Today they are forced to sell their crops below the cost of production. They are unhappy, depressed, and dependent. Instead of being prosperous they are being impoverished. Instead of being able to obtain some of the comforts of life they are denied many of its necessities. Instead of being able to pay their debts and start the new year with a clean bill of health, they will find themselves deeper in debt."

ROBBED BY BANKRUPT IN OFFICE.

Benjamin Moore, manager of the Popular Finance corporation, 4710 Irving Park boulevard, was robbed of $425 yesterday morning by a bandit who held him up in his office. The thief escaped.

FRANCE ADOPTS LAWS TO CHECK IMPORTS TODAY

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS, Aug. 19.—Tomorrow the French government will adopt formally a series of restrictive measures, controlling the consumption of imported articles of all kinds in an effort to effect economies and to strengthen the franc.

The cabinet in council today approved in principle the measures which the special committee drafted last week, although certain minor alterations were incorporated in the original scheme.

Meanwhile, on the strictest orders from Premier Poincaré, the prospective measures are guarded with the utmost secrecy and no inkling of their nature has leaked out yet.

"Tomorrow we will announce our definite decisions," said M. Poincaré on leaving the Louvre this afternoon.

M. Poincaré declined to discuss the forthcoming interview with Secretary Andrew Mellon of the United States treasury, who is due to reach Paris from Evan soon.

Italian King Bans White Flour.

ROME, Aug. 19.—King Victor Emmanuel today signed a decree forbidding the sale or manufacture of bread, cakes, or pastry made with fine white flour, and prohibiting the use of this flour in private homes. The decree will become effective on Sept. 15.

MUSSOLINI HURLS FASCIST DEFI AT WORLD BANKERS

Hints Warning Is Aimed at Americans.

BY LARRY RUE
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

ROME, Aug. 19.—In his speech in the public square of Rome today, Premier Mussolini solemnly warned "the enemy financial powers that the Fascist regime is raising to the limit of its powers their attempts to strangle the nation."

He admitted that he was speaking without having had his words approved by political figures of the government. He said his speech was aimed to "have an echo over the Alps and the ocean"—meaning the United States.

"Ready to Give Last Breath."

"I want to say that I will defend the Italian lira to my last breath and my last drop of blood," he said. "I will not permit upon the marvelous Italian people, who for four years have suffered with economic discipline and are ready to make even more grave sacrifices for their country, the moral and economic catastrophe of the world."

"If we discover the enemy internally, we will grub him out with a strong arm. The lira, which is the sign of money and symbol of our sacrifice, will be defended at all costs."

The premier began by speaking of the "monstrous grotesque hopes of certain enemies," obviously referring to the international bankers. He declared Fascism as "not only a party but a regime, and more than that, a faith more like a national religion."

"To Make Over the Ocean."

"It must not seem strange that I give political declarations of unusual import, for this is the first time I have communicated directly to my people my convictions and decisions without resorting to official apparatus," the premier said. "I talk thus to you and all Italians intensively, for I know my voice without doubt reaches over the Alps and the ocean."

Impero, the extreme Fascist newspaper, commenting on the speech as one of first importance, threatened that "an attack by a tribe of international financiers against Italy may be suppressed by arms."

"Terror," another Fascist newspaper, said. "We will resist at all costs the attacks by international bankers. Italy has no exception in the terrible colonization of continental Europe by the international plutocracy. Italy has not a sound of dirt to sell abroad."

Germany will be admitted to the league without any further trouble at the coming meeting at Geneva, was reported today by the Undersecretary of State of the foreign office.

Though Italy heretofore has been supporting Spain and Poland as enemies to permanent seats in the council, Italy now has a free hand and intends to act at the coming council according to the obligations of Locarno, said Grandi, the foreign minister.

The Locarno treaty obligates the signatories to Germany into the league. It is presumed that Italy will no longer object to this, as it did last spring.

BRITAIN CHEERS KELLOGG SPEECH ON ARMS CUTTING

France Target, Paris
Paper Says.

BY JOHN STEELE
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

LONDON, Aug. 19.—The British government is delighted with the speech of Secretary of State Frank B. Kellogg at Pittsburgh, N. Y., yesterday, in which he took a stand on the international disarmament question, which is identical with the British position. The foreign office experts particularly are pleased with his opposition to the French thesis that the economic power of a country should be considered as a factor in its armaments.

"If this is so," said a foreign office expert, "the United States might be allowed to arm or navy at all, while Great Britain might save a great deal of money by not doing so."

The French foreign office has no comment to make on Mr. Kellogg's speech in the absence of Premier Briand, who is taking a vacation at Cannes.

Predicts Row on Navy Cuts.

An admiralty expert took the same view, but predicted trouble in further naval limitation, due to the refusal of France and Italy to consider the limitation of submarine building.

"In France and Italy are to be allowed, as they insist they must be, to build all the submarines they want. Great Britain must insist on her right to build cruisers and destroyers," he said. "We cannot stand idly by and see an overwhelming number of submarines constructed without providing counter armament. If, however, France and Italy are willing to limit the number of submarines we are willing to go the whole way desired in the limitation of all classes of naval ships."

PARIS, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Scant comment has been given in the Paris press to Secretary Kellogg's speech at Pittsburgh in which he invited the nations of the world to cut their navies in an effort to secure real disarmament. This in part is explained by the fact that there are other and more immediate matters to be discussed here.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Governor Small issued a proclamation today designating the week of Oct. 3 to Oct. 9 as Fire Prevention week. The proclamation urges all municipalities of the state to conduct systematic inspections of property to eliminate fire hazards. question of disarmament arose just before the meeting of the league assembly. Though there is no change in American policy, Mr. Kellogg does not surprise as by insisting that measures for limitation of armament be completed.

In conclusion the paper remarks, "A reduction in cruisers and submarines is suggested, in other words, France is the target."

B. OF L. E. WIDENS FIELD IN ITS BANK BUSINESS

Investments Now Total About $47,000,000.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 19.—(Special).—The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers is planning to open another bank in New York in two or three months, to open a new branch here in a few days, and is starting a cooperative national bank in San Francisco as part of its national system, George T. Webb, executive vice president of the Brotherhood Cooperative National Bank here, said today before leaving for a trip to Europe.

The brotherhood recently sold its interest in the Brotherhood Trust Company of New York, following the sale of the Equitable building, which had been controlled by the brotherhood, and also disposed of its stock interest in the Empire Trust company.

The sale all coming within a short period, led some to believe the brotherhood was "getting out of New York," but Webb declared yesterday that each sale had been made because the brotherhood had been offered a price which assured it a good profit. No change in policy has taken place and the brotherhood is expanding its banking interests, he said.

The brotherhood still holds a substantial interest in the Empire Trust company although considerably short of control. Mr. Webb and William E. Prenter, president of the brotherhood, are members of the voting trust which controls the company.

L. C. Griffing, grand chief engineer of the brotherhood and Webb have been in charge of the brotherhood's financial matters in the absence of Prenter, who will return from Europe at the end of this month. Griffing, who is also vice president and chairman of the bank here, has been acting president of the brotherhood.

Bank Sells Building. The Cleveland bank sold one of its two downtown buildings last April and closed a downtown branch which had been opened during the construction of its main banking building, a six million dollar structure. At the same time it was announced it would open a string of neighborhood branches, the first of which has just been completed.

With the resignation of Prenter from the directorate of the Coal River Collieries company in May the interlocking connection of the brotherhood administration with the coal company's management was broken. Brotherhood members still own stock in the company as individuals, but the company is managed independently.

Interested in Florida. The brotherhood bought about thirty thousand acres of land below Sarasota, Fla. last summer, organized the B. of L. E. Realty corporation, built the town of Venice, and is selling lots and farms to its members and the public. Webb said yesterday the company is making satisfactory sales despite the slump in Florida subdivision activities. Sales recently reported have reached one million dollars.

The brotherhood's financial systems now include banks and land in Nottingham, O.; Hammond, Ind.; Boston, Philadelphia, Birmingham, Minneapolis, San Francisco, Spokane, Tacoma, and Seattle, Wash., and Portland, Ore.

With the exception of the Empire Trust company, the gross resources of the Brotherhood banks are about forty seven million dollars.

The first brotherhood banking institution to be formed was the Cleveland bank which opened late in 1920. The Brotherhood Investment company was formed in 1923 as a holding company and the Empire stocks bought at the same time.

TINKHAM CALLS WHEELER REPLY PROOF OF GUILT

Admits Breach of Slush
Fund Act, He Claims.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
Washington, D. C., Aug. 19.—(Special.)—Representative George H. Tinkham (Rep., Mass.) charged today that Wayne D. Wheeler, reacting to "characteristic personal abuse, evasion, and mendacity" in defense of the Anti-Saloon league's failure to comply with the federal corrupt practices act, had unwittingly made full confession of the league's guilt.

Representative Tinkham's demand a few days ago for prosecution of the league and its officials prompted Mr. Wheeler, the league's general counsel, to assert that a full accounting of expenditures by wet organizations would "make the money spent by the league look like thirty cents."

Mr. Tinkham's letter to Attorney General Clegg was an attempt, Wheeler asserted, to divert attention from wet activities.

"The charges have been officially made and sent to the department of justice," Representative Tinkham countered today. "I do not intend to argue Mr. Wheeler's defense with him when to a charge of criminal offenses his plea is that others are guilty of the same offense. This is complete confession of the crime."

"In my recent letter to the department of justice I made no statement which is not true and which cannot be authenticated by the records and public statements made by Mr. Wheeler himself. The case is now one for the grand jury and courts to settle if the department of justice does its duty."

"Mr. Wheeler's statement that 'only a small part of the league's income is spent for political purposes' is so ludicrous and untrue, according to his own admissions in his recently signed articles, that all who read them must be greatly amused at his eccentric sense of humor."

See Dry Leader Discredited.
Any statement made by Mr. Wheeler is much discredited by his record of admissions and defenses of paying money from the secret funds of the Anti-Saloon league to senators and representatives for services when he was requesting legislative action from those same senators and representatives.

The appointment of Thomas J. Cavanaugh as prohibition administrator in Philadelphia was announced today by Frank Dow, assistant to Lincoln C. Cavanaugh prohibition enforcement chief. Cavanaugh was formerly assistant administrator in Pittsburgh.

THOMPSON, SAVED FROM CORAL REEF, HAS SOCIAL DAY
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
August 19, 1926. By The Chicago Tribune.
ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Col. Carmel A. Thompson, the national Philippines investigator for President Coolidge, and some of the newspaper correspondents who are with him in his survey of conditions in the Philippine islands narrowly escaped being stranded on a coral reef off the mouth of the harbor of the Hawaiian island on the coast of Honolulu today.

"I sent a large launch to take the party off the reef," Mr. Thompson said. "The launch was working its way through the narrow gap in the reef when the engine quit working and light breezes started to blow the vessel toward the reef. Just as the boat was about to strike, the captain of the launch was prepared to send help, the launch was repaired and the party proceeded to shore."

SEEK M'SWIGGIN MURDER CLEWS FROM GANGSTER

Police Seize Man of Three Names, 1 Big Revolver.

With the arrest in Cicero yesterday of a gangster believed to be a vanguard of the M'Swiggin-Al Capone and who carried a long 45 caliber revolver and an extra clip of bullets, police investigators for the special grand jury were said to have found an important clue in their investigation of the murder of John Connel, who was shot in the back of the head at the corner of 12th and Madison streets, July 26. M'Swiggin, believed to have been the intended target of the assassin, instead had no idea who they were. M'Swiggin was released.

Three Names, But One Gun
The Cicero gunman, who confessed to using three names, Joseph Klema, Joseph Byrne, and John Byrne, said he was a pugilist who came to Chicago two and a half months ago from St. Paul. He sought to explain his revolver by stating he carried it for protection, but a search of his pockets revealed he had only 40 cents.

His first hotel, which is notorious as the rendezvous of the Capone gangsters, and in which Al Capone himself is said to have hid for months, guarded by a dozen New York gunmen.

Further evidence cited by the police to indicate Klema's affiliation with the Capone gang was that not more than three hours after he reached the special grand jury room a writ of habeas corpus was sought by Attorney Nash and Ahern, who have on many occasions represented Al Capone and his henchmen.

Last night the prisoner was held by orders of Deputy Chief of Detectives John Stagg, who announced Klema would not be released until he had satisfied the authorities that he had not been murder bent when picked up by Lieut. Edward Birmingham. At time of the arrest, the prisoner demanded to be taken to the Cicero police station.

Side Two for Questioning
Klema, 34-year-old, 2405 Flournoy street, was picked up by the police at Roosevelt road and Ashland boulevard late yesterday. Cohen, who had $1,500 with him, said he is a busy dealer and carried the money for business reasons.

Appelquist is a brother of Ernie Appelquist, who, with Julius (Pistol) Eastman and others, was questioned after the killing of Louis (Big) Smith, a New York gangster, slain here. Appelquist and Cohen will be questioned further today.

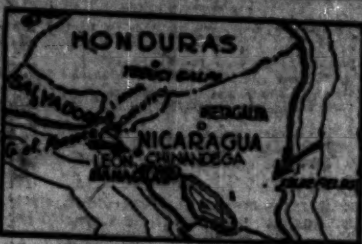

Assistant State's Attorney Robert E. McMillan yesterday requested the twelfth and last winning place on the Republican Municipal Judge ticket as the recount of ballots last night was completed.

McMillan in the recount in 24 precincts yesterday gained 226 votes, while Leo L. Klein, who had been leading him for the last winning place, gained only 16 votes. This gave McMillan a total of 124,393 votes in the recount thus far, while Klein's total was 124,167, making him trail by 226 votes. Judge William L. Morgan, who indicated the recount is far behind both Klein and McMillan, trailing the latter by 2,227 votes.

With that development, the recount in the city was back at the point from which it commenced, for not one nomination for office has been altered.

In the country towns of Cook county, the recount gave County Commissioner George A. Miller victory for re-nomination over John Jaranowski, who had been declared the winner.

REVOLUTION

Revolutions are reported to have broken out in Leon, Chinandega, and other communities in Nicaragua. The government is mobilizing and dispatching troops to many parts of the country to suppress the uprisings. Rebels dynamited a troop train on which more than 200,000 was being carried from Leon to Managua, a few soldiers being injured. The revolutionists were driven off before the robbery could be effected. Efforts to dynamite railroad bridges at Leon were frustrated. The American consul at Bluefields has asked that a gunboat be sent there as a precaution. The government troops are reported to have had the upper hand when they met the rebels in sharp encounters.

TENEMENT GIRL COMING TO CLAIM CHICAGOAN'S GIFT

New York, Aug. 25.—(Special)—Miss Elizabeth Gruber, a thirty-two year old east side young woman, today was planning what she would do with a $25,000 inheritance left her by Dr. Howard Loraine of Chicago, following her identification here as the nine year old girl who smiled winsomely on the western physician when he was a New Yorker twelve years ago.

Identification was made by representative of the physician's estate from a cheap snapshot photograph of the child taken by the doctor when Miss Gruber was a child. She will journey to Chicago to furnish final proof of her identity next week.

Dr. Loraine was captured by Miss Gruber, whom he called "Little Miss Blue Eyes," twelve years ago when he was a visiting physician at the Chrystie street settlement here and she was just one of eight poverty stricken children of a Roumanian immigrant living in a dingy tenement.

She was found after a three month search following Dr. Loraine's death.

Moran, Secretly Paroled Man, Held on Alky Charge

Joseph P. Moran and his two companions, arrested Wednesday with a carload of alcohol, all were held on charges of transporting intoxicating liquor yesterday by U. S. Commissioner Henry C. Bolles. Moran and Oscar Moore, Terre Haute, Ind., each were held in bonds of $2,500, while Mrs. Edna Ellington, Terre Haute waitress, who said she was Moran's wife, was held for $1,500 bail. Moran probably will go back to Joliet prison for violation of his secret parole that cut short his sentence for robbery.

Why is it that the end plugs are so often fouled?

THE end cylinders of the average motor car with the average gasoline receive too rich a mixture

It is due to wet gas. (Liquid drops of gasoline separate from the mixture at every bend of the manifold and concentrate at the end cylinders. That is why the spark plugs of the end cylinders are fouled more frequently than the others. It is the visible evidence of a wet gas.

Wet gas means imperfect combustion, a loss of power, an excess of deadly carbon monoxide in the exhaust gases and free carbon in the cylinders.

The new Texaco forms a dry gas in the manifold. It frees your motor from the evils of end-cylinder enrichment and provides an even flow of fuel and power to every cylinder. Engineers have long tried to produce this ideal gasoline. The Texas Company with its new Holmes-Manley process has succeeded.

The results:—Better combustion and more power. Maximum acceleration without flooding. A quicker start. Less crankcase dilution and no fouling of spark plugs.

Carburetor adjustment is not essential—you will get better results in any event, but still better with the lean mixture that the new and better Texaco makes possible.

And you will notice the gain in mileage, the better hill work and freedom from knocking. The new Texaco has exceptional anti-knock qualities—attained without the addition of dopes or poisons.

FORMS A DRY GAS

A wet gas as it would appear in the manifold, is a mixture of gasoline vapor with minute globules of liquid gasoline which form a wet film at the manifold bends and enrich certain cylinders at the expense of others.

A dry gas, the new Texaco, vaporizes at a lower temperature than others on the market and forms a perfect dry motor fuel which distributes evenly and gives a smooth flow of power in every cylinder.

When Greb started a punch he had no idea whether it was directed at the melancholy Tiger's glittling coat of gold teeth or the smug, smiling face of the Tiger who loves so widely that he has a stripe on the shirt front of Jerry who was scrambling at an enclosure as referee.

It was a hard fight to watch. They were both so bad that the case of assigning the blame and of each round instead of credit. Greb just happened consistently wilder and more than Flowers, a fellow was to fight better than Harry Larry's own carefree way.

Neither fighter carried weight in his mitts to dump in an instant, but Flowers was tripped by his own hippety-wock, and Greb took one-prawn himself, unassisted, and round Greb twice shoved away from him so hard that neither fell backward over the rope and almost went out of

"We want Greb," came the answer from the rafters in a mass of voices. "We want Greb." But the night in which the official trials was under partial darkness, for Walk Miller, the attorney, had made his charges and apprehensions against Greb, and that his flight was known as the worst of much gossip to the public couldn't lose if he fled. At that Greb might have fled and the middleweight champion on several occasions. But for Flowers, in driving gloves to Harry's body and punches in legs and the raised cane, Greb made no complaint, but Harry Johnston, who was the chief second, let the oil

MRS. WALLACE SHOOTS 77 FOR TOURNEY RECORD

Beats Mrs. Jacobs in Park Golf.

BY HARLAN ROHM.

Mrs. Wallace, defending champion, playing the Marquette park golf course yesterday, not only defeated Mrs. Jacobs, a clubmate from Jackson park, 4 and 3, in the third round of the city public parks championship, but broke the competitive record for the course. Her score was 77-35-77.

In the semi-finals with Mrs. Wallace went Mrs. Oscar Horn of Marquette, Miss Ruth Barker of Jackson, and Mrs. B. W. Bumpus of Jackson, leaving three of the city parks with a chance to win the championship.

Mrs. Jacobs, the singing golfer, played excellent golf, her lowest score being 74 in the fourth and fifth, the same score with which she tied Mrs. Horn, a medalist, in the qualifying round. Her powerful drives were whistling far down the fairway, as usual, and the rest of her game was sound. But it couldn't compare to the brilliant golf of the blonde champion was shooting.

Becker Tells of Permit Rules in Superior Forest

BY BOB BECKER. "Chicago.—(To the Editor.)—Two years ago you gave Dr. Hoffman and me such good advice about Minnesota for camping and fishing. Now we are thinking of going up there again, and would like to secure information about where to camp in the Superior forest somewhere near Ely. Is it necessary to write the superintendent of forest for permission to pitch a tent?"

KNOCKOUT NEWS

Knocks out that knock

Think of it! Up hills—over bad roads—with easy, steady power. Not a knock from the engine! Just the soft, rhythmic purr of a well-fed motor.

Red Crown-Ethyl Gasoline is a tonic. An instant tonic. The engine responds with new pep as soon as the tank is filled with Red Crown-Ethyl. Immediately you sense its new power, new eagerness, new flexibility.

Harness carbon! Make it work! Carbon caused all kinds of trouble before the days of Red Crown-Ethyl Gasoline. The worst of it was you never could get rid of it. Now you needn't. You can harness it—put it to work for you—by using Red Crown-Ethyl Gasoline. More carbon will mean more power.

If you hate the sound of a knock from your car—if you like an engine that is quick to obey—speedy on the pick-up—steady through the rough spots—powerful on the hills—Use Red Crown-Ethyl Gasoline.

FRONTIER OF U. S. GREAT CITIES NOW, LEECH SAYS

BY HARPER LEECH.

Mr. John Clayton's analysis of Mexican conditions shows President Calles' policies are not such as to bring about the "great cities" which he has promised. The "great cities" are not the "great cities" which he has promised. The "great cities" are not the "great cities" which he has promised.

Both are mistaken. The intellectual and the business man are not the same. The intellectual is not the same as the business man. The intellectual is not the same as the business man.

The present American frontier is not in the west at all. It is no longer a territorial frontier. It is no longer a territorial frontier. It is no longer a territorial frontier.

Immune hunger has grown more rampant. The energies which formerly sought a vent on the territorial frontier are now turned into the great industrial centers. The energies which formerly sought a vent on the territorial frontier are now turned into the great industrial centers.

The American which took 1,500,000 square miles from Mexico in 1836 to 1848 was a land hungry America, because it was then the principal form of wealth in the world—about the only important form of wealth outside Britain, a thin strip of New England, and a few commercial ports here and there about the globe.

Seller Calles is probably as strong a man as Santa Anna—but he certainly is a luckier man, living in a luckier day. In Mexico, on the basis of the Texas state capital there is a picture of the wretched Santa Anna surrounded by his captives—a few Tennessee and Kentucky frontiersmen.

Just a few thousands of these folk, with wives, swarms of low headed Indians, slaves, women, and a few mules, had left their native states, which were then more than a picture of the wretched Santa Anna surrounded by his captives—a few Tennessee and Kentucky frontiersmen.

In 1840, following the defeat of Mexico by a few hundred frontiersmen, there were 17,000,000 persons in the United States and national wealth was estimated at $7,125,000,000, of which 100,000,000 was farm property. In 1840 there are 115,000,000 persons, and national wealth is estimated at $185,000,000,000, of which 100,000,000 is farm property. In 1840 there are 115,000,000 persons, and national wealth is estimated at $185,000,000,000, of which 100,000,000 is farm property.

Today all the real estate between the Mexico and the Rio Grande is not worth as much as to pay for a week of warfare. The hands of Mexico now, simply because land has lost its significance as the principal form of wealth.

ANDREW GUMP'S RESIDENCE SOLD OVER HIS HEAD

BY AL CHASE.

While Mr. Andrew Gump is monkeying around with the real estate subdivision game, his home was sold over his head yesterday, and we'll bet a set of chin whiskers that

Andy won't know it unless he reads this column (and he probably never does read it). Anyway, the building where Sidney Smith has his studio (and, of course, where Andrew bought his eighty acre farm) which he now finds he can't dispose of till he raises some more cash, was purchased by Dr. Alfred E. Burdick, president of the Abbott Laboratories.

Dr. Burdick bought the three story building at 221 East Ontario street from Dr. Henry A. Alford for a $50,000 cash. Victor A. Miners of the North Michigan avenue office of W. K. Young & Bro. was broker.

To Do Remodeling.

Dr. Alford, now living in Florida, remodelled the present building from an old residence. The new owner intends to do a bit more remodeling on his own account. The lot is 31,120. Alfred W. Burdick is the architect.

Dr. Henry A. Alford, who was the northeast corner of State and Chestnut, 102, from Aaron Colton and Harry Boyack for an undesignated price, is an incubator of $40,000.

Mr. Hannah is out of the city, but his attorneys, Campbell & Fletcher, say they believe he may replace the present old improvements with a modern building of medium height.

Dr. Burdick.

Karl Handelsman yesterday purchased the Handelsman apartment building at 2330 N. North Spaulding avenue, lot 10,611, containing forty-two flats, from Dr. Henry A. Alford for a subject to an encumbrance of $100,000. In part payment Mr. Handelsman conveyed to Frank J. O'Donnell a block of business property on Armitage avenue, between Levee and Koshier and the corner of Irving Place was attorney. The Lakowski firm will manage both properties.

ROBIN AND TURPENTINE.

The Source of Real Profits

Real profits are seldom derived from careless speculation or investing in promotional, unproved ventures. To rely on such methods for the achievement of wealth is about as dependable as to stake one's future on the turn of a wheel or the flip of a card.

Real profits come from the creation of new wealth—from the products of the soil, from the enhancement of stable values, from the manufacture and sale of some useful commodity—in other words from rendering some real service to mankind.

Your funds, then, if they are to produce real profits for you, must be invested in productive enterprises, and in that part of their financial structures which can share increasingly in the profits—in other words—their stocks. Our booklet, "Sharing in the Profits of American Industry," tells how this can be done.

Line 300 in fact is a good deal more than one of the words being used in a sense which is not the same as the word used in the other words in the same line.

Which of these three factors does your product need

- 1 High quality
- 2 Good value
- 3 Adequate advertising.

to achieve success like that of NASH?

ANALYZE Nash success, and its basis is this trinity of fundamentals: (1) a quality product; (2) good value; (3) adequate advertising. Omit any one of the three and no outstanding sales achievement is possible. Combine them all, and any seller of goods—be his product macaroni or motor cars—may well equal the enviable Nash record.

Reproduced at the right is an advertisement published two years ago. It recounted Nash growth from 1918, the first full year of Nash production, through 1923. In those six years the 600% increase in Chicago Tribune advertising was accompanied by a 900% increase in Cook County sales.

But Nash didn't stop there! Nash knew that in Chicago and suburbs The Chicago Tribune had the largest daily and Sunday circulation. Nash knew that in Zone 7, which leads the country in motor car registrations, an average of sixty per cent of all the families in 1,151 cities and towns read The Chicago Sunday Tribune. Nash knew how responsive that vast audience was to adequate advertising.

Up and up went Nash lineage; so that in 1924 and 1925 Nash used more space in The Tribune than in the other five Chicago newspapers combined. Again using Cook County business as typical, note how the sales responded:

In 1923 Nash used 51,926 lines of advertising in The Tribune; and sales were 1,812 cars, or $2,544,682. In 1924 the space was increased by 4,265 agate lines, and sales jumped to 2,388 cars, or $3,405,240. In 1925 a 20,739 increase in Tribune lineage over the previous year saw a new record set of 3,810 cars, or $5,115,868.

If you make motor cars, the moral is obvious. And if you don't, and you feel like saying "My business is different," remember that in this compact, close-knit Zone 7, which occupies only 8.7% of the country's area—

- 22.1% of the value of the country's manufactured product is produced.
- 18.1% of the country's crop value is grown.
- 22.4% of all the building during 1925 was done.
- 17.1% of the nation's population is concentrated.
- 19.6% of the income tax returns were filed.
- 20.1% of all home owners live.
- 21.3% of the country's electrically wired homes are located.

Best of all, your problem of adequate advertising is tremendously simplified by the unusually dense coverage of a single powerful medium—The Chicago Tribune. As advertiser after advertiser has demonstrated, the highroad to sales in the five rich states of Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, and Wisconsin is the blazed trail of Chicago Tribune circulation.

Year after year their increases in space used to sell Zone 7 have been more than matched by gains in sales. Very likely some manufacturer in your own line of business is among those The Tribune man will cite as examples when he calls on you. Out of his presentation of facts may come plans that in a few years will make your own success the subject of an advertisement similar to this. Wire or phone for him to see you.

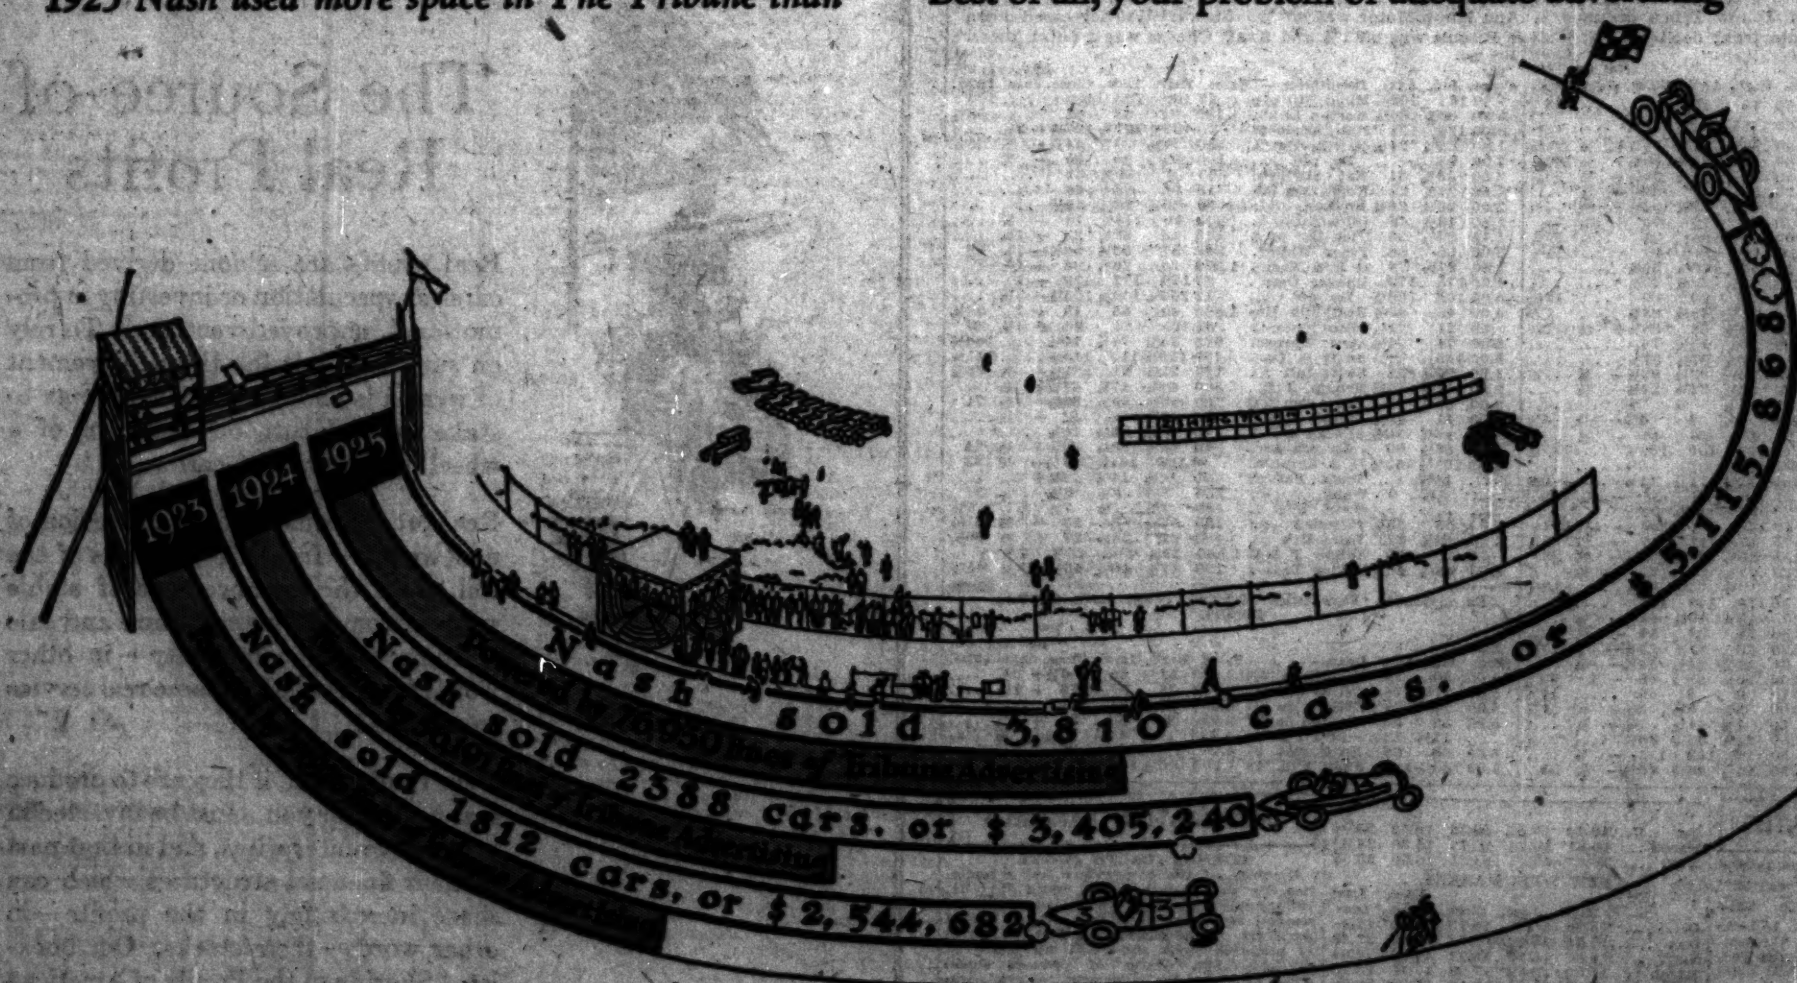

Nash sales set terrific pace on steep grade

The Nash story is a tale of a triumph over adversity. It is a story of a man who, with a vision of the future, set out to build a car that would be the best in the world. The Chicago Tribune
THE WORLD'S GREATEST NEWSPAPER

The Tribune advertisement of two years ago, reproduced above, shows Nash advertising and sales from 1918 through 1923. In 1924 and 1925 Nash used more space in The Chicago Tribune than in the other five Chicago newspapers combined. Every year since 1918 Nash advertising in The Chicago Tribune has shown increases over each previous year with sales increases consistently and proportionately larger than those of the advertising. Note the Cook County sales figures on the Speedway chart.

Roumanian Queen May Start American Tour in September

PARIS, Aug. 19.—(AP)—Queen Marie of Roumania has decided to sail for the United States at the end of September. Her friends here say she will not travel incognito, but as a queen and so will not be able to visit any American home. She will lodge at hotels on her travels, except in Washington, where she probably will lodge at her country's legation.

The queen hopes to travel largely by automobile to get a better view of American life and scenery. It is said she desires to visit every state of the Union. Her tour probably also will take in the chief cities of Canada. The itinerary will be announced within a few days.

King Ferdinand of Roumania came to Paris today on a holiday. He plans to spend ten days here and so may not get back home to Bucharest in time to bid his queen Godspeed on her journey.

H. S. Fraternity Delays Listing of Its Benefits

Members of the Kappa Alpha Psi High School fraternity, holding their annual convention, met in secret session yesterday at the Congress hotel to decide on reasons why they should not list their benefits. The reasons, which it was previously announced would be presented to the public yesterday, were not announced if they were formulated. The grand guard of the secret chamber said: "We'll get our reasons, all right, and then we'll show them people." The guard also said that Kappa Alpha Psi is the richest fraternity in the country, having not even college societies, and would be able to break down antagonism to fraternal life in high schools.
